

The poster features a dark blue background with a repeating pattern of the Finnway University crest. At the top, there are green pine branches with white lights and several Christmas ornaments: gold and red striped spheres, gold spheres with white floral patterns, and a green sphere with white floral patterns. Gold stars are scattered throughout the upper half. The main title 'FINNWAY WEEKLY NEWSLETTER' is centered in white, with 'FINNWAY' in a larger font. Below the title, the event details are listed: 'Upcoming Event: 15 December' (with the date underlined), 'Christmas' (in red), 'Time: 10:00 - 1:00PM', and 'Location: Main Campus'. The bottom of the poster shows a row of colorful, snow-covered houses in yellow, red, and green.

Christmas 2023

Here at Finnway International School Phuket, we will be hosting our annual Christmas event for all the Finnway families on Friday 15th December 2023, the event will begin at 10am and finish at 1pm and will be held at our Primary Campus.

A kind reminder that this is not a regular school day, and the school will only be open during the event time. More information will be released over the coming weeks via the school newsletter and through your class PTA representative.

The theme for our Christmas event this year will be 'A Global Christmas' celebrating our diversity of nationalities at Finnway and worldwide Christmas traditions.

If you would like to provide anything for the event, whether that be traditional food and drink (non-alcoholic), a Christmas activity or a traditional performance please inform your PTA representative by 4pm on Friday 8th December.

Please confirm your attendance our Christmas Event via this form:

LOY KRATHONG

We would like to express our gratitude to all parents, children and staff for their effort to make our Loy Krathong event special. It was wonderful to see the vibrant atmosphere created during the workshops. If any parents would like to share their photos from the event, please send them via email to karl.reid@finnwayphuket.com or via KindieDays/SeeSaw to our Head of Extra-Curricular, Teacher Karl.

Changes in Primary School Report Format

This year, Primary School reports will have a slightly different format compared to the previous year as we implement these changes to enhance the reporting process.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to those parents who attended our Learning Cafe earlier this term to familiarise themselves with our new reporting system. The reports will be ready for parents to collect from your child's classroom teacher on Thursday, 14th December.

Attached, you will find the presentation materials from the Learning Cafe. We encourage you to review this information at your convenience to gain a deeper insight into the enhancements made to our reporting system.

ART EXHIBITION

Finnway children have collaboratively created stunning artworks in art class, showcasing their creativity and teamwork. These masterpieces are featured in our first-ever art gallery event. Some can be won in a raffle, with proceeds funding our next big outdoor art project for all primary classes.

The gallery is open from 27 November to 4 December in the school foyer. Visit Grade 5 to enter the raffle at 50THB per ticket or 120THB for 3 tickets. The draw is on Dec 6. Your support is crucial, and we appreciate your ongoing commitment to our school.

See you at the gallery!

PUBLIC HOLIDAY

A kind reminder that the school will be closed next Tuesday, the 5th of December, due to a public holiday.

Primary & Kindergarten Learning Cafes

Thank you to the parents who joined us in discussing the learning and development here at Finnway at the Primary and Kindergarten Learning Cafés. You will find the presentation materials for both cafés attached to this newsletter.
